PERSONAL.

John Witt was in the city this week.

J. D. Babbage went to Louisville Thursday.

Mr. De Bates went to Louisville yesterday.

W. B. Dumas went to Louisville Thursday.

Rev. I. B. Timberlake was in town Wednesday.

Miss Ferrie Harlow, of Holt, was in the city Friday.

Mr. B. S. Dumas went to Hardinsburg Monday.

R. K. Moorman and wife went to Henderson Monday.

Mr. C. W. Moorman went to Louisville Thursday.

H. W. Washington was in the city Thursday and Friday.

Geo. Thos. Patten, of Owensboro, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. George Hayes, of Stephensport, was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. Ben. Dumas and Miss Elva are visiting in Owensboro.

Geo. A. W. Moorman, of Brandenburg, was in town this week.

Mrs. B. N. Haddon, of Louisville, came down for a few days this week.

Mrs. W. B. Patten, of Tall City, visited the city several days this week.

Mrs. M. M. Whittle and son, Virgil, of Brandenburg, spent Friday in the city.

F. Frazer, F. N. Dickey, Ed. Davis and J. C. Porter went to Hardinsburg Monday.

Geo. Jordan and Doc. Davis went to Louisville Thursday night and returned Saturday.

Leona Smith came up from Owensboro to the Masonic installation meeting Wednesday.

Wm. Howe, of Lexington, spent Saturday night in the city of the guest of Mr. W. B. Hume.

Miss Jennie Ireland spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at home, returning in time for work at school Monday morning.

Misses Frances Brashers, Minnie Morrey, Lucy McLeavelle and Lela Owen spent the past week with Miss Ballew at her home.

They report a good, lively time and say their pleasure was much increased.

Mr. J. C. Nolte has contracted with the Louisville Building and Loan Association for a loan to build a house on his vacant lot on First street. Mr. Nolte has the house rented and the rents will nearly or quite pay his monthly debt on the company, so at the end of seven and a half years Mr. Nolte will have paid a sufficient amount and have his house clear, without having paid out a dollar of his own money. This is the practical working of a good and reliable Building and Loan Association such as the Inter-State is. John D. Babbage is secretary and treasurer in this city.

The Masons of this city held a public installation service at the Baptist church last Wednesday. This service was very impressive and the address by Hon. Thos. S. Pettit, of Owensboro, was a splendid contribution to the literature of the order and a credit to his ability as a speaker and orator.

SPECIAL BRIEFINGS.

The river is still rising. The building boom is on. Mrs. Joe Porter is very ill. W. O. Allan has the influenza. Look out for our grand drawing.

The Commercial club ought to wake up. The house is on the edge of the way and let the procession move on.

Several car loads of machinery have been received at the machine shops.

Mr. Jolly has introduced a bill for the benefit of the town of Stephensport.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard May died in the city yesterday evening.

Mr. Amel Oulze has struck it rich. $50,000 is a pretty nice sum to make off of an investment of $1000.

Five new engines of 60 tons and two such have been added to the rolling stock of the Clover Line this week.

What has become of the Commercial Club? There is lots of work for it to do and we hope it will come together and do it.

Miss Ella Carter died last Sunday morning of consumption. She was 21 years old and daughter of the late Ben H. Carter.

Wars and rumors of war do not effect the wonderful sales of Carter's magic children's clothes any. "No care, no pay." Sold by W. O. Shor.

The Commercial club has done excellent work for this town in the past and it should not cease from its labors. Wake up gentlemen and let your light shine.

Born to the wife of Mr. Phillip Ditzsch, Wednesday Jan 15th, a bouncing boy, Louis Irvin. Phillip has been unable to get many this week. Too busy looking after the baby.

Harry Price, a brakeman on the Clover Line, while coaling cars at Gatton last Sunday was thrown under the wheels, the entire train passing over his body without in the least stopping. He was from Lebanon, Ky.

Mr. John R. Phillips, formerly of H. T. and Co., is now at Oklahoma, Ok., and writes to have his paper sent to that city. That he is indebted to some friend for the weekly visits, and appreciates it very highly.

Rev. I. V. Gregory, of the Christian church will preach in Fisher's Hall to-night and the remainder of the week on at the Park church. He will also preach at the Fellows' Road to night.

McQuady was badly cut by Frank Kinney in a personal encounter near Belltown last Saturday night. Kinney came in Monday and gave him up to Marshall Graham. The trial will be held as soon as McQuady is able to attend.

The City Council has adopted Maj. Fowler's report on the grade of Second street and the same will be submitted to the railroad for their approval. It is to be hoped now that there will be no further delay and that the street will be put in first-class order.

There is a genuine awakening among the people on the subject of building houses, and most every man you meet has a plan in hand and is discussing it. There is no question but what houses are in demand and we have need for them, and the more our people wake up to this fact the better it will be for the town. There ought to be at least fifty houses going up here right now.

The railroad company found it necessary this week to blast out of the way the large rock overhanging the track in the Skillman cut above town. It has been unsuspended from the embankment ever since the cut was made, and has always been an object of some terror to trainmen. The recent rains caused it to loosen its hold partially on the bank so it became necessary to remove it. Dynamite did the work, and now it won't budge any more, but little of the once imposing pile.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephens entertained to the Saturday evening in honor of several visiting young ladies. A very enjoyable time was had and Kentucky's claim to hospitality secured by still another visit. Those present were Misses Brook Stephens, Sweeney Boud, Fannie Brashers, Lucy McLeavelle, Lela Owen, Minnie Morrey, Sallie Pamphrey, and Messrs. Jas. Stephens, Chas. Skillman, Marion McGraw, Jess Owen and Orville Skillman.

Mr. James Peter, President of Ky. Natl Bank, Mr. Harry Wallinger, President of the Star Tobacco Works; Mr. Alex. Bullitt, President of Underwriters; and Mr. Lattie, of Louisville, passed through the city yesterday in a motor car en route to Virginia, where they will spend several days hunting and looking over the country. It is supposed that the car is well equipped with cigars and refreshments of all kinds, and that the gentlemen are out there for a good time, and here's hoping they may have it.

The Ladies' Bazaar, held at the Commercial club, was a very successful affair. The ladies made up the liquid fund for the bazaar, and all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the taste, and is a healthy, yet effective in curing the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Legislative Notes.

A bill has been introduced to prevent the inter-marriage of first cousins in this Commonwealth. The punishment is $500 fine and twelve months imprisonment for the magistrate or official performing the ceremony.

Mr. Beachamp has introduced a bill to abolish the county Board of Supervisors and allow their duties to be performed by the Justices of the Peace.

Mr. Settles' bill, providing that Jury Panel Trustees shall collect all fines and judgments of courts and pay the pro rata of such collections to court officials has been favorably reported and passed.

A bill is before the Legislature to incorporate the town of Lexington in Daviess county.

There is feeling throughout the State that the Legislature ought not to extend its session over sixty days.

Mr. Richardson, of Meade, has introduced a bill regarding railroads to fence half of the adjacent property when required by the property owners.

The Legislature made an appropriation of $10,000 for the benefit of the sufferers by the storm a week ago in the southern part of the State.

The Courier-Journal is endeavoring to check an evil that has existed with great frequency and which is still going on in that body. Numerous amendments have been made to Louisville's charter without the citizens being consulted, thus giving rights to certain parties who fence the city of large sums of money. This is one of the effects of too much local legislation.

Gov. Becker has pardoned W. B. Tompkins, sent up from Trigg county for life, charged with murder.

Mr. Leagy, of Floyd, has introduced a bill to enlarge the property rights of married women.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate providing for the appointment of female physicians in certain charitable institutions of the State.

The Capital reform question has been revived in the Senate by Mr. Mallick, the member from Louisville. The House has made many efforts to get the State out of Government, but she is no nearer the point now than ever.

Gov. Becker has re-appointed the members of the Railroad Commission for another term.

A bill to establish a State Bureau of Information is before the Legislature and will doubtless become a law.

Mr. Richardson, of Meade, has offered a bill for the taxation of banks. It provides that the capital stock, surplus, undivided profits and individual accumulations of each bank of institution doing a business of deposits and discount in this State shall be taxed like all other property.

A bill before the Legislature to fix the compensation of Commonwealth's Attorneys at an annual salary of $4,000 is in all of its forms now received.

BEWLEYVILLE.

Dr. R. R. Pennington sold his land lying near Mr. Dineen's place. Mr. John Trent last week and received the money. Mr. Trent is a cash man and knows when and how to invest his surplus. He is one of the patrons of the cash store at Bewleyville.

Mr. John L. Bandy has bought the interest of Mr. Clifton McCann in his father's place. Mr. Bandy is a thrifty farmer and he too buys his goods of the Cash Store.

Mr. W. H. Cain, Jr., moved his family to his Meade county farm on Saturday last. He has improved the place with a new dwelling, and with his active energy and good management he has made one of the prettiest places in the vicinity.

Mr. Mag. Dent and daughter, Esther, visited the Cash Store last week and left a handsome sum in cash.

Messrs. Oliver Kinney and Wm. McCoy Jr. made a visit to Louisville last week with the intention of making their home, but returned in a few days with their views somewhat changed as to city life.

Mr. W. W. Keesh has gone to Louisville looking for a business situation. As he is well qualified for energetic and devoted young man, we hope he will find a good place.

Mr. Bates Washington was in town last week.

Mr. W. W. Williams was in town Friday buying goods of the Cash. He knows where he gets them right. Come often Mr. W.

Mr. Roscoe Nobles, of Brasas was in town last week visiting the family of Mr. Thomas at Stephensport.

Mr. R. Logan Hardaway will return in a few days to his far away home in Northern Dakota, where he hopes prosperity may attend him in the future as he is past.

Mr. Robert B. Pennington stopped off on his return from Louisville in Owensboro to visit his friend George E. Darry, but spent most of his time at Charlie's.

Will Bob, George says is a always glad to have you come anyway, and we are certain Charlie will be well contented.

The young people of the town spent an enjoyable evening on Friday last at the home of Mr. Jas. C. Musselman.

The party was given in honor of Miss Con. the youngest sister of Mr. M. Con. The evening was a most enjoyable and interesting conversation late a charm to all who were present.

The Cash Store is receiving daily additions of new and desirable goods and with its close cash prices has found no dull season.

One hundred and one eggs shipped in the last few days.

Bring on all kinds of produce for which the Cash Store will pay the highest price. Don't ask for credit as it will not be repaid to any one.

Mr. Parry, master mechanic of the Clover Line, has moved the Worldford property.

GOLD ENOUGH!

Keep it up, and we won't have any cause to complain, although it is no money in our pocket. Our new "cut-rate" tariff which we put in force last week, has had the desired effect. We are selling lots of our own make Clothing—the best in the city—and a few weeks more of this sort of work will bring down stock to the proper level. In the meantime, the same low-down no-profit prices prevail, and bargain-hunters will find a splendid field to invest their spare change. We had quite a run on our stock of Overcoats, but we can still supply a moderate demand. They are wonderful values for the money we let them go for; but there is a limit to all things—they cannot last much longer. But while they do last, it will be fun for the people, but no money for us. But it can't be helped.

WOODSON'S WEAL.

A Memphis Young Man of Worth Comes Luckily Here So.

Upon the principle that none but eagle saw eagles, the Appeal reporter captured yesterday night out Mr. Chas. R. Woodson, the extent of whose good fortune is only excelled by his handsome appearance. Mr. Woodson was the lucky holder of a one-cent ticket of the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the capital prize of $500,000. The Appeal commissioner found Mr. Woodson hard at work at his desk, holding the responsible position of head book-keeper and chief of the business office of the well known retail dry goods establishment of Hunter Brothers, corner of Main and West Court Streets. He is a gentleman of fine appearance and, especially, a genial, sociable companion. The Appeal reporter approached him with the figurative question: "Well, Mr. Woodson, I suppose your ship has come in?" "How is that, sir?" he and, then, at last, he said: "I have concluded: 'Oh, yes, sir! I made the 'big hit' last evening.' In reply to further inquiry, Mr. Woodson elaborated: "I held the lucky number, deposited it each bank, received the returns ($15,000) promptly, and have not yet decided what investment I will make. I own a valuable farm which has been receiving my attention very closely, and I will place a portion of it there in the way of improvements. I have received any amount of advice as to how I shall invest it, but I have decided to reach my place here on the 1st of January and devote a good part of next year to travel over the United States, and perhaps my way to Kansas City, and then to the West. I am a native born West Tennesseean. Fayette county being the place of my birth and early training. I received a good literary education, which was completed at Lexington, Ky., but I have been keeping at Ladd's Commercial College in Memphis. I have held responsible positions at Menken's and the house I am now engaged in."

The past few years of buying one or more Louisiana State Lottery tickets more as a pastime than anything else. You may rest assured I was surprised to discover that I had secured the lucky number. I will still continue to patronize the lottery in about the same way. I am thirty years of age, have been married, and have two sons who—Memphis (Term) form. Good-bye, Mr. Woodson!

MOOLEVILLE.

We had a terrible wind storm last Sunday night. No houses escaped however.

A great number of hogs have been in this vicinity, and those who have butchered have lost quite a portion of their meat, owing to the warm weather.

Mr. Thomas Broady has gone to Louisville to attend school. Our best wishes for him that his earnest efforts may be crowned with success.

Mr. Vioharch, of Elizabethtown, has been visiting friends and relatives at this place. Many regrets are expressed by his many lady friends that his stay is so short.

Mr. Davis Cunningham, son of J. D. Cunningham, is very ill at this writing with influenza.

We had a grand little lot at Miss Lizzie Bellwood's last Tuesday evening. All enjoyed themselves highly. Phillips was so busy that he could not attend.

Mr. Frank Elder, after three months' stay at his father's at this place, has returned to his Southern home in Arkansas near Lake Village. We heard him speak often of a Miss Dussie near Clover in highest terms.

Mr. R. R. Mattingly and wife of this place are visiting her father, Mr. Dick Mattingly, near Sinking Creek.

Peach trees in bloom in Kentucky, this means very much like a job on the ground but will realize that it is only intended for a year, when time proves the fruit crop to be an entire failure.
